OHIO'S SESQUICENTENNIAL

- 1953 marks an important event in the history of Ohio — the 150th anniversary of Ohio's admission as the seventeenth state in the Union.
- Through the pages of our yearbook we are honoring this memorable event.
- As future citizens of Ohio, we are striving to acquire the civic virtues necessary for good citizenship. Among these are moral responsibility, sound judgment, good sportsmanship, initiative, loyalty.
- If we let it, our school will strengthen these virtues in each of us. This is the main purpose of her moral, intellectual, social and physical programs.
- Then we shall make Ohio truly "an Empire within an Empire," as we hold fast to our great American motto:

"In God We Trust"

Symbolizing St. Ursula's Sesquicentennial observance this year, the four class presidents hold the "Great Seal of the State of Ohio" — Carol Jean Schuchter, sophomore; Mary Alice Brand, senior; Patricia Siemers, junior; and Anne Evans, freshman.

Dedication

Rt. Rev. Msgr. Clarence G. Issenmann,
P.A., S.T.D., Ph.L., Jour.D.
Vicar General of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati

We dedicate our 1953 "Crest" to a great civic leader, Msgr. Clarence G. Issenmann. Appointed by the Most Reverend Archbishop Karl J. Alter to be Archdiocesan Chairman of the Sesquicentennial Program, Msgr. Issenmann arranged for the Pontifical High Mass in March which marked the official celebration of Ohio's statehood by the Archdiocese of Cincinnati. As Father Superior of The Sisters of St. Ursula, Monsignor has ever been a staunch friend of the students of St. Ursula Academy. We humbly dedicate this Sesquicentennial volume to him, asking his prayers that we may grow up to be loyal Americans.

Our SUA of the Future - -

Long a dream, soon to become a reality, is our new modern Gym-Auditorium with its dressing rooms, showers, athletic office, and projection room. The new convent building will result in more space for the Academy when the sisters move to their new quarters. Pictured above is an enlargement of the Architect's model.

"We, the people of the state of Ohio, grateful to Almighty God for our freedom, to secure its blessings and promote our common welfare, do establish this constitution."

*Preamble,
Constitution of the State of Ohio.*

Community Living

Taking part in community affairs prepares future leaders in The American Way of Life.

With a one hundred per cent enrollment, the Junior Red Cross is a flourishing student organization. Each class volunteered to complete a project assigned by Red Cross headquarters. Projects included party favors, funny hats, and nut cups for the Ft. Thomas Veterans hospital. Generosity in helping the unfortunate develops a sense of responsibility toward our local community and its problems.

In "I Speak for American Democracy" contest, Patricia Manley clearly stated that our American government is based upon Christian principles.

Molds the Young Citizen

Marilyn Bowling, senior, was school representative on the Girls' Week planning committee.

After the Safety Institute at Walnut Hills High School, these three girls were determined to eliminate accidents from daily living. Mary Ann Reenan, junior, studied Traffic Safety; Mary Jean Grunkemeyer, Safety in Recreation; Nancy Folz became an authority on Home Safety; and Patricia Keller, freshman, (not pictured) took part in Fire Safety.

Meeting local problems requires ingenuity and resourcefulness —
Basic American Qualities.

Girls' Athletic Association

The G.A.A. stresses our preparation today to be civic leaders tomorrow. Working together and good sportsmanship are developed through the sports program and Variety Show. We learn the social graces at G.A.A. dances.

Seniors came out on top in the intramural basketball tournament. Winners are Claudette Geraci, Mary Ann Curtin, Bernetta Close, Marilyn Gayhart, Barbara Thul, and Angela Fraley, standing; and Caroline Evans, Lois Schomaker, Camille Geraci, Marilyn Bowling, Patricia Manley, Mary Alice Brand, kneeling.

Directing GAA activities under Mrs. Mullinger's guidance is our GAA Board. Members are Patricia Manley, corresponding secretary; Mary Ann Curtin, social chairman; Barbara Thul, publicity; Camille Geraci, vice president; Marilyn Bowling, president; Betty Doran, treasurer; and Patricia Siemers, recording secretary.

Catholic Students Mission Crusade

Religious ideals strengthen character and inculcate principles which are fundamental to American life.

Reporting at monthly meetings, collecting tax stamps and self-denial pennies, and tabulating prayers for Spiritual Bouquets are tasks of the class representatives. They are Patty Kotte and Martha Wittekind, sophomores; Norma Swarts and Elaine Dowling, freshmen; Patricia Manley, senior; Jean Peters, junior; Elaine Durkin, junior; and Lois Schomaker, senior.

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness . . ."

Declaration of Independence.

On the Cultural Side--

Cincinnatians have ever been known for their cultural interests. Our school carries on this tradition by offering a well-rounded cultural training. Choral work under Mr. Fehring, the art and piano departments, lectures on current topics, dramatic productions, and movies for critical evaluation — all stimulate and develop an appreciation of our cultural heritage.

Freshman piano students have fun rehearsing for a duet recital. Sitting at the piano is the "Margie" twosome, Marjorie Thiel and Marjorie Smith. Standing behind the piano are Arlene Lehr, Barbara Ax, Paula Gieske and Nancy Nolting.

Education, Business, Industry

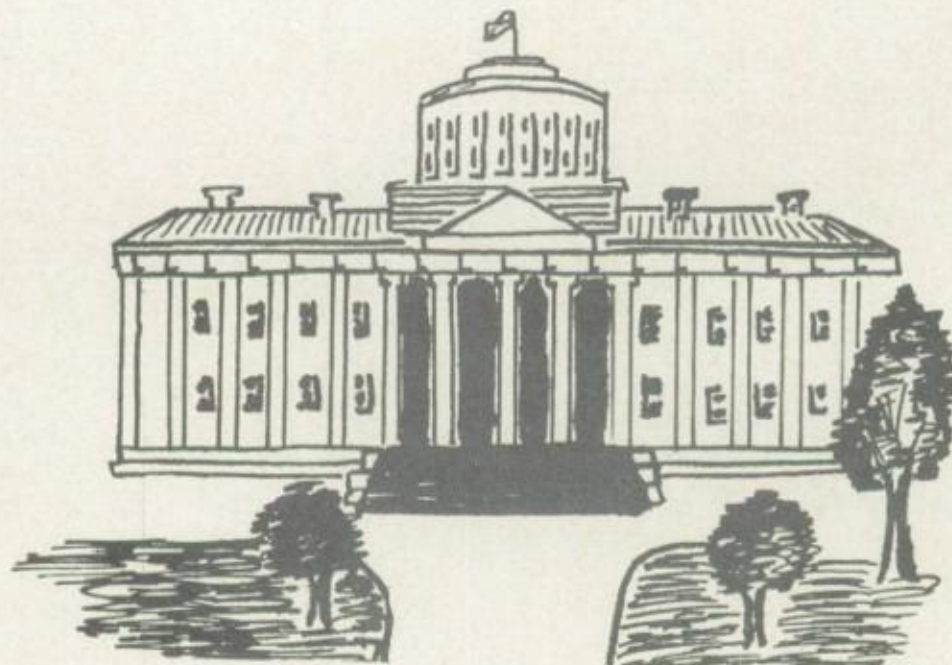

Senior home economics students planned, prepared and served luncheon to St. Ursula's guests from industry on E.B.I. Day. Setting the table are Camille Geraci, Elizabeth Wenker, Jane Meyer, Joetta Branan and Geraldine Brautigan.

CITIZENSHIP CLASSES

Problems of Democracy panel discussing: — “Should the Taft-Hartley law be repealed?” — consists of Barbara Thul, Bernetta Close, Alice Tudor and Barbara Soldati.

A well rounded citizen is "made" not "born." Our program of studies is designed to produce this result. English literature, languages, science, and math, each makes its own contribution to our intellectual background. Equally important for the future citizen are religion and social studies. World history, U.S. history, modern history, problems of democracy and civics give us factual knowledge of today's problems. Religion shows us how to solve them by answering the fundamental questions about man's life and his goal.

Senior trio figuring out imaginary income tax returns as a preparation for citizenship includes Frances Federika, Dorothy Bahr and Martha Meyer.

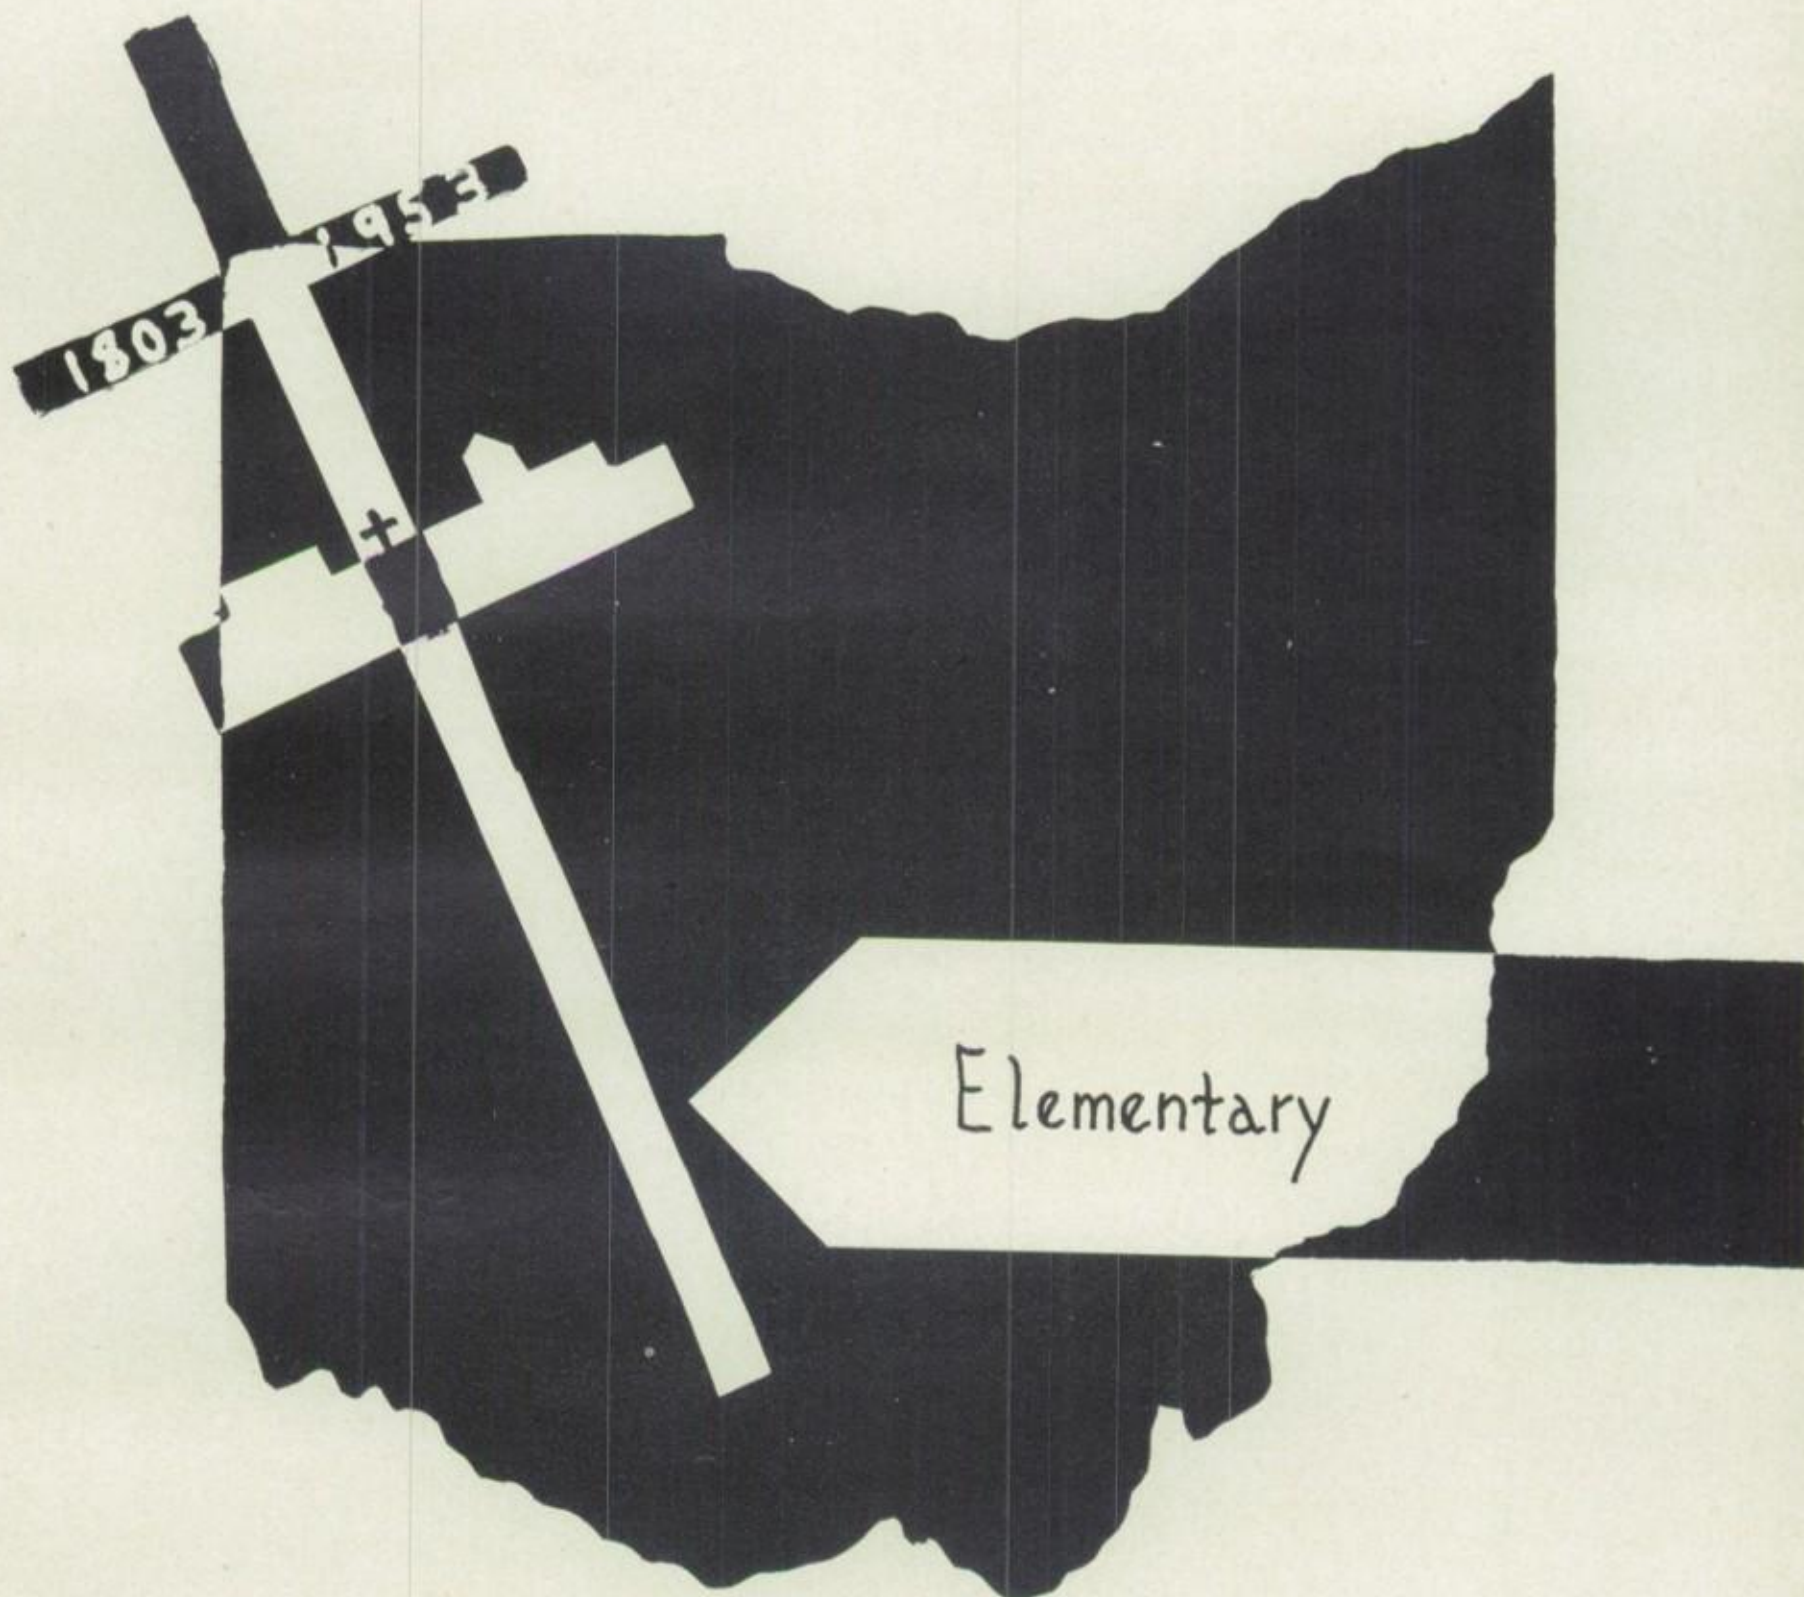

Cooperation with others and learning to take responsibility are civic virtues developed through group activity.

"Feed the hungry," is taken literally by the CSMC when members collect and fill baskets of food for poor families at Christmas. Class chairmen were Elaine Dowling, Elaine Durkin, Adrienne Frerichs, Mary Fellers, and Mary Jo Schanzle, standing; Patricia Burke, Joetta Branan, and Geraldine Brautigan, on couch; Barbara Penker and Alice Kollman, sitting on floor.

Having charge of sheet music for the Choral Club isn't always this easy! Freshman workers on the floor are Marjorie Thiel, Anne Evans, Joyce Wagner, Judy Schaefer and Marjorie Smith. Upper row includes Rita Bischoff, Marilyn Carroll, Joan Karasek, Janice Stalf, Virginia Bowling, Molly Giller, Paula Gieske and Barbara Hauck.

"All men have a natural and indefeasible right to worship Almighty God according to the dictates of their own conscience. No person shall be compelled to attend, erect, or support any place of worship, or maintain any form of worship, against his consent; and no preference shall be given, by law, to any religious society; nor shall any interference with the rights of conscience be permitted."
